Edgewood Senior Living Center

Our September meeting with prospective new members met at the Edgewood Senior Living Center, 1104 25 St. SW, Jamestown at 5:00 PM on Thursday, September 6 for fellowship and a light supper.

Longtime members Helen Hample and Hazell DeGroot were recognized. To get to know each other we introduced ourselves, where we went to school, our first job and our last job. As AAUW Founding Day is in November, Kelly Krein presented a program will include a short history of AAUW and the Jamestown affiliate.

A tour of Edgewood was also available. Two new members, Barb Domek and Judy Frey, joined AAUW after the meeting. We have a total of 34 members.

Helen Hample

On her birthday, October 18th, Helen Hample will turn 104 years. Helen graduated from University of Jamestown. Her first teaching position was in Edgeley. Helen later taught at UJ, was the Dean of Women, Dean of Students, received an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters, and in 1981 was declared a Professor Emeritus. Helen joined the AAUW branch on July 1st, 1940 and has been an active member since.

On Nov. 1, 1934, Dr. Bertha Brainard (temporary chairman) with the help of Mrs. M.P. Wynkook (temporary secretary), an eight-year Valley City Branch member, called together Mrs. B.H. Kroeze, Mrs. C.L. Robertson, Mrs. Ronald Thompson, and Miss Mae Crittendon to officially organize an AAUW branch in Jamestown. If you wish to learn more about how the Jamestown Branch started go to: <https://jamestown-nd.aauw.net/about-us/>

It would be nice if every member could send her a birthday card. Helen's address is Edgewood Senior Center, 1104 25th St SW, #107, Jamestown, ND 58401

UJ Block Party 2018

Members from AAUW Jamestown passed out many "It's My Vote – I will be heard" stickers and also passed out information on how to vote in ND to freshman students at the 2018 UJ Block Party that was held on Main street in Jamestown on Aug. 30. With a crowd of over 1500 persons the event was a huge success.

There was a lot of positivity at the Block Party this year. It's difficult to get students motivated to vote because they need to do absentee ballots. They were not told who to vote for but encouraged to vote. Many students took our AAUW pamphlets. Jill suggested that we also promote the NCCWSL program through Jimmy Janes, which also promotes leadership for it's members.

TechSavvy

by AAUW

Planning is underway. The program will be held on March 7, 2019. NOTE: Change of date due to scheduling with the school system.

The Committee had their first all-committee meeting to put together presenters, budget, website, etc. The next meeting in 2 weeks. Plans are to include UJ marketing class to market the event. Last year had issues with the lunch, so this year they checked with Dominos and were offered good discounts. But the school decided to take charge of the lunch themselves with boxed lunches.

When were books first banned?

The first book banned in the New England colonies was written by William Pynchon, founder of Springfield, Massachusetts. His book was published in London in 1650 (about a decade after the Bay Psalm Book) under the title "The Meritorious Price of Our Redemption" and was promptly banned for heresy upon its arrival in the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

If you're interested in the list of books banned by various governments, go to this link.

Job Posting

Garden Tour Coordinator 2019

Connie Lilljord is willing to be the Garden Tour Coordinator position after Kelly retires. Connie would like to have a Co-coordinator who is good with detail, organizing workers, publicity, etc. Connie is willing to work on making garden contacts, etc., but would like someone to help her who is better at the details.

The job duties are all documented as Kelly has kept meticulous records of the past years of Garden Tours. Kelly will work with Connie & the new Co-coordinator for the next July 2019 tour.

Membership Report

We currently have 34 members PLUS 2 members joining at the September meeting. Welcome to Barb Domek and Judy Frey!!

Current members are encouraged to bring a prospective new member to any of our meetings.
