Program: begins at 10:30AM

Stutsman County Drug Court and Criminal Justice Reform

Jamestown AAUW will be hosting an informational program on Stutsman County Drug Court and Criminal Justice Reform.

Our branch member, the Honorable Judge Cherie Clark and LeAnn Bertsch, director of the ND Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation will be presenting about the Southeast Judicial District Drug Court in Jamestown which serves Stutsman and Barnes Counties. The purpose of the court is to assist participants in initiating and sustaining positive, long-term lifestyle changes, including living free from criminal behavior and substance abuse disorders. The women will inform us about the court and how the community can become more active participants in drug and criminal justice reform.

The public is invited to attend this meeting. Branch members will enjoy a lasagna luncheon and branch meeting prior to the program at 9:30 am also at the Legacy Center.

Please RSVP to Barb Domek at b.domek5540@gmail.com or 515-991-6646 by January 8 if you plan to attend the luncheon. Cost of the luncheon is $11.00.
